REMEMBRANCE DAY- Lest We Forget

We will be having a Remembrance Wall to honour those who served in wars. WEDNESDAY, November 2nd & THURSDAY, November 3rd, come to the Craft Room on the 2nd floor, and for a donation, write on a cross, the name of your loved one(s), who died to preserve our freedom. For those who served and survived, write their/your name on a poppy. The crosses & poppies will then be placed upon our Remembrance Wall. All donations will be forwarded to the Royal Canadian Legion.

If you would like to make your own felt poppy to wear, come to the Craft Room on Wednesday, Nov. 2nd & Thurs. Nov. 3rd. A donation to the Royal Canadian Legion will be taken for each poppy made so as to not take away from the Legion's fund raising efforts.

If you do not care to make your own, poppies from the Royal Canadian Legion will, once again, be available at the Front Desk for a donation. Also Receive $10 Canterbury Bucks

WELCOME SOCIAL: Please join us as we welcome our new residents to Canterbury Court. On Tuesday, November 15 at 2:30 PM. We will be serving our afternoon coffee/tea and goodies in the Recreation Room. Come learn a little about our new residents, a great opportunity to meet and support our new friends here at Canterbury.

BAKING: On Monday, November 21st at 1:30 PM in the Arts and Crafts room we will have the opportunity to do some baking. If you have a favorite cookie or muffin recipe please share it with Allyson before Wednesday, November 16th. Our yummy baked goods will be shared at Coffee Break that afternoon.

CURRENT EVENTS/TRIVIA

Fridays at 10:15 AM in the Recreation Room right after Gentle Stretch.

Current Events - We will discuss local, national and world wide events of the week. Please feel free to bring along interesting articles from magazines and newspapers to share with the group.

Trivia- Allyson will be providing a range of topics in trivia questions.

Everyone is welcome to these programs, you don't need to be a wiz, it's for
